By Associated Press.
GLASGOW, Oct. 25.—Prime Minister Andrew Bonar Law, in discussing his policies, told a meeting of the West Scotland Unionist Association today:

"My strong belief is that this nation needs, above everything else, rest and tranquility."

The government's policy, said the prime minister, would be to leave the recovery from the war to the unrestrained initiative of the men and women of the country.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Andrew Bonar Law as leader of the Unionist party, in a manifesto issued this afternoon declared that of the tasks of that party, if it is returned to power, will be to make good the old Anglo-Irish treaty, both in letter and spirit, and to cooperate with the Irish government.

The manifesto declares it will be the government's honest aim to give whole-hearted and practical support to the League of Nations, to fulfill the obligations Great Britain has undertaken abroad, but not extend her commitments but preferably to curtail them, and to maintain friendship and good understanding with the United States.

A wireless message to the Admiralty today said that both the Soviet government of Moscow and the government of the Far Eastern Republic at Chita were represented in the delegation that took over the arms from the Japanese.

Peace resumed in the city as the Japanese pulled out of the harbor and the most of the white guards had departed in a body. The American, French and Japanese warships are still riding at anchor off the city as protection to the nationals of their countries.

Public Dances Under Ban After November 1

This is the last month for public dances in Connellsville. All entertainments of such nature have been banned by Mayor Charles C. Mitchell. The executive issued his edict today after giving a hearing to a young man arrested in a local dance hall last night on a charge of fighting. A warrant is out for another.

The mayor said disturbances of like nature had become too frequent at dances and that he would issue no more permits unless they were invitation affairs.

Considerable complaint about the public dances here has been made in the past several weeks. Arrests at them have become more frequent recently and two days ago a young man was fined $15 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct at one. The mayor said that unless better conduct marked the gatherings, he would stop them.

"After the first of the month," said the mayor, "no more public dances will be allowed in Connellsville. Permits will be granted only for invitation dances and if these are not properly conducted dancing will be stopped altogether."

Until this year dances had been

U. S. to Be Invited To Peace Parley

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 25.—France, Italy and Great Britain have agreed to invite the United States to participate in the Near East peace conference at Louanoe, November 13.

The suggestion that United States be invited came from Lord Curzon, the British secretary of foreign affairs. The invitation will be handed to the State Department in Washington tomorrow by the French, British and Italian embassies.

Washington, Oct. 25.—

Pending receipt in Washington of the official invitation for American participation in the Louanoe peace conference official comment as to the American attitude is withheld. There is every reason to believe, however, that the trend of opinion in American government circles does not favor American intervention in the conference beyond the possible appointment of an unofficial observer to give the conference the American viewpoint on all questions in which the United States has a direct interest.

Argument Heard
In Kephart Case;
Lewis Assailed

By Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Oct. 25.—The Dauphin county court last night took the case of the Kephart case, in which the State Treasurer Harmon M. Kephart charged mismanagement in office in failing to keep correct and accurate accounts of his department.

The case, which was argued for two days, was held for trial on November 24, and the indictment was returned on November 15.

The arguments for Kephart were made by John R. Geyer, Harrisburg, and William A. Glasgow, Jr., Philadelphia, while Deputy Attorney General George Ross Hill and District Attorney Philip S. Meyer appeared for the State.

Mr. Hill contended there was no reason why Kephart should not be indicted, and said that for removal from office would be his remedy.

Thousands of Armenian
Orphans to Be Placed
In Pennsylvania Homes

President Harding has been asked to "set down the bars" so that immigration officials will permit the landing in this country of 5,000 Armenian children—mostly girls—made orphans by the Turks during recent massacres of Christians.

It is planned to give parents in this section of the State opportunity to take these homeless children into their homes and formally adopt them as their own.

The orphans are now in charge of the Near East Relief. They have been taken from orphanages conducted by the Near East Relief as a precaution against the Turks. All told, there were about 25,000 of them in Constantinople. All of them have been taken care of excepting the 5,000 girls.

The plan is to have the 5,000 girls and all of the boys placed in Pennsylvania homes on condition that the State offer no help for the safety of the orphans and there is no opportunity for them to become self-supporting.

Persons Not in Parade
Must Keep to Sidewalks
Hallowe'en, Mayor Orders

Regular and Special Police
Will See That Edict Is Obedied.

PLANS ARE COMPLETED

Mummers who do not accept the invitation to march in the Hallowe'en parade Friday evening must keep to the sidewalks. They will not be permitted on the streets over which the procession moves during the time it is moving. This was the order today of Mayor Mitchell, acting on the suggestion of those in charge of the annual celebration.

This action is taken to overcome difficulties experienced in the past. Hoping off the line of march has been found impracticable, instead of ropes a cordon of officers consisting of the regular police force and members of the Fire Department will be called into service to enforce the ruling.

The order means just what it says. The mayor indicated, namely that all who are not in the parade must keep to the sidewalks along the entire line of march, which will include the principal downtown streets.

On the other hand the fond hope of all is that every mummer who can will join in the march. The formation for which will be in Lincoln avenue, Race and Green streets. It is not the desire that they get in line downtown and march a block or two. This is unfair, it is pointed out, to others who are to the whole route in competition for prizes, only to have persons who go a block or so stop the honor.

There will be no prize for the honor. There will be no prize for the honor. There will be no prize for the honor.

If all the mummies who through the streets would join the parade, just think what a pageant we could have," said one of the leaders in the arrangements.

Primarily the celebration is held for the young folks and the aim will be to see that there is nothing to mar their pleasure.

If there are no delays, due to over-crowding on the part of the older mummies, it will be possible to have the children over the route of the parade and back to the Carnegie Center School Building within 15 minutes after the start. It was said.

There they will be given a treat.

With the exception of the finances everything is ready for the event. The committee was still short $50 of the required amount today but was hopeful that public spirited persons would come across with this sum.

Some traffic regulations will be necessary. Parking of cars will be prohibited between 7 and 10 o'clock in Pittsburgh street from the Carnegie Library to Peach street and in the downtown sections of Crawford avenue, also Arch street from Crawford avenue to Apple street. During the parade no cars will be permitted in the streets over which it passes.

HAD KNOWN COMPANION

Met Her at Rummage Sale Previous to Killing of Rector and Chief Slayer; Immediately Recognized
Her Night of Crime on Phillips Farm

By Associated Press.
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Jane Gibson, pig raiser, who claims to have witnessed the murder of Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, today told a newspaperman that she had identified the man who she says shot the rector as well as identifying the woman she asserts was with the murderer.

Mrs. Gibson, who was on the Phillips farm the night of the murder looking for coal thieves, and who claimed to have heard the murderer's name called by his woman companion, said she did not know the identity of the slayer at the time but that she recently had recognized him in the prosecutor's office in New Brunswick.

Mrs. Gibson, who it was learned yesterday had told the authorities the name of the woman, said she had once met her at a rummage sale and had recognized her at the scene of the murder. She added she had seen her since the double killing and was sure of the recognition.

Mrs. Gibson, in continuing her story, said that instinctively she followed the man and woman who crossed the field.

"When I turned into the dirt road," she said, "I lost one of my moccasins. I dismounted to get it. When I had put it on and climbed back on my mule's back the couple had disappeared."

"A few moments later I heard loud voices in the direction of the crab-apple tree. I saw a man and a woman each with a flashlight. They threw the beams on another man and woman. Then out of the darkness I heard more loud talking as if all were quarreling. Then I heard a shot."

"I heard a woman scream in horror," Mrs. Gibson said the woman, who screamed, uttered a name and shouted:

"Please, please!"

"And then," said Mrs. Gibson, "I put my heels into my mule and went on home."

Mrs. Gibson is quoted by a Chicago newspaper syndicate representative as saying that one of the women she saw under a tree on the Phillips farm was Mrs. Hall, wife of the slain rector. She did not name publicly the man with Mrs. Hall.

Famous Thoroughfare Very Much Changed Since the Days When the Kaiser Reigned—German-Americans There in Great Numbers to Show the Fatherland to Their Children and Grandchildren—Most of City's German Comes From Tourists With German Accent.

"Rubberneck wagon" has become a standard German word and sightseeing tours about Berlin are supplied with all American trainings.

"This is the German White House, the home of President Ebert," the conductors announce as they pass along Wilhelm street.

When the tourist car crosses the bridge over the Spree in sight of the lock which regulates the height of water in the highly-canalized stream the conductors shout: "It's just like the locks on the Panama canal, but not quite so big."

Pedestrians Speak English.

Unter den Linden is now busier than the boulevards of Coney Island on a bright day and half of the pedestrians are speaking English.

The tourist cars all start from Unter den Linden. Every two hours a double-deck auto bus carries one of the famous boulevards in the direction of the capital.

All guides speak both German and English. At least that is what the placards on the auto buses say. But the fact is that the guides have been so poor during the summer rush that many of them are too poor to be understood in any language.

Unter den Linden is no longer the quiet dignified thoroughfare it was in imperial days. If a German soldier were to walk through the city he would find it a very different place.

Missellaneous traffic now comes along the boulevard and cars and cabs are parked everywhere. Cabs have extended their routes far out on the boulevard. Vendors of refreshments are on all sides, and many of them are very good. The vendors of refreshments are on all sides, and many of them are very good.

Unter den Linden is no longer the quiet dignified thoroughfare it was in imperial days. If a German soldier were to walk through the city he would find it a very different place.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing intellectual, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics, and later life nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and loss of energy. The rule among physicians is that children should not receive opiates for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Corbals, Soothing Symples, or other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly warned, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are in need of the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

High School Is About Ready to Tackle Tube City Eleven Saturday

McKeesport Expected to Give Connellsville Some Opposition.

SCOTSDALE NEXT WEEK

The Connellsville High School football team held a scrimmage at Layette Field yesterday afternoon that gave an insight to the spirit which prevails in connection with the coming McKeesport game on Saturday. The Orange and Black players got right down to brass tacks in their workout and reaped some real benefit from it.

The second team was given McKeesport plays to try on the varsity and the ground gained was negligible. The first team scored with some strategy and the backs did some pretty plugging and running.

High School will likely make a come-back this week and McKeesport will not prove a snap as was believed earlier this year and High School is not over-confident. The set back last week took the locals down somewhat and they are determined to win prestige in the eyes of the home fans again.

In view of the fact that Scottdale comes here on Saturday, November 4, the locals will draw a large crowd to Layette Field this week-end. Fans are anxious to see what the Cokers really look like in action after their two hard games and this will be the only opportunity before the Villi Towans come.

After the scrimmage yesterday Connellsville's back-field men went to work on the tackling dummy and the linemen had a chugging practice.

The Tornadoes held a signal practice yesterday. In spite of the fact the American A. A. team cancelled the locals are keeping in trim with the anticipation of securing some other opponent for Friday.

The bowling alleys are popular places on the cold evenings. The clan of Rip Van Winkle have been knocking the ducks and ten-pins for some nice scores.

Tornadoes Are Still After Game

The Connellsville Tornado football team is making every effort to secure a game for tomorrow. The American A. A. which had been signed for that date cancelled yesterday and since then Coach B. C. Jones has been making overtures to almost a score of eleven without success. If he does not secure a team by noon today, there will be no game this week.

The Tornadoes are anxious to get into action. The test to which the Hill Top "try" put the outfit last week got the men in a frame of mind for hard playing and now that the scheduled game has been called off, a keen disappointment results.

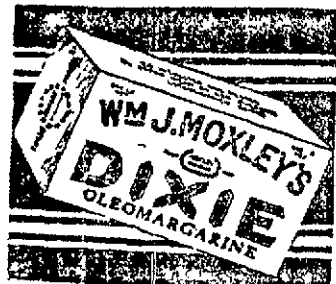

It has not been possible to come to terms with Brownsville this year. That team will not meet the Cokers half-way and is endeavoring to do all the debating. Local fans intimate the Brownsville aggregation is not anxious to take a chance on losing the laurels gained by the 7-0 victory last year at Uniontown. The team has been offered the proposition of playing two games, one here and one in Brownsville each team to keep all the money collected at the gate and to pay its own expenses. Neutral officials would be used in both games. Brownsville, however, will not accept such a contract.

White Guards Rob Vladivostok Claim In Note to Japan

By Associated Press
MOSCOW, Oct. 25.—Charges that Vladivostok is being looted by the white guards of the British government with the assistance of Japanese officers and soldiers are being made in a joint note sent to Japan by the Soviet government and the Far Eastern Republic.

The note also protests against the enforced delay in the occupation of the city by the Far Eastern forces contending that this is due to the attitude of the Japanese which has given the white guard an opportunity to rob the city by evacuating goods to foreign ports.

The communication places all responsibility for violations and looting upon the Japanese.

STALLINGS LIKES ART NEHR

Once Paid $2,500 Out of His Own Pocket for Clever Little Giant Southpaw Hurler.

ever body else paid him up. He won three shut out games for me on the reel and Jim Gahagan gave me my money back. He couldn't field his position at all when he came in but he set to work and made himself one of the best there is.

WILLIE KEELER STOOD HIGH

He Was Small in Stature, But Usually Adept in Placing Hits—Feared No Pitcher

Baseball students are given to ask if there was ever a more efficient batsman than Willie Keeler. He retired from the game in 1912 and was one of the smallest players who ever played big league ball. The opposing team never knew where to play for the little fellow.

If the shortstop moved over toward third base in an effort to kill one of Keeler's rollers, he would lay it where the shortstop should have been. He used to joke that the smallest he could find and lay down perfect bunts.

Keeler has a record of bunting out five hits in one game all of which were laid by the shortstop. And make no mistake he could hit the ball as hard as anybody. He was one of the most popular ball players ever lived.

Wonderful for Sick Stomachs

Everyone who rises in the morning and knows that it does not indicate a healthy and contented stomach almost instantly.

Read this letter from Wm. Starkey, Rock Creek, Ohio:
I was sick for several years went to hospital after getting no relief from doctors and many remedies that I tried. Unable to work and confined to the house I was advised to try Doan's Orin's Stomach Remedy. I had no faith in anything any more but I tried it and to my happy surprise it did me good. I am now perfectly well and for six months have been working every day in the blacksmith shop cutting everything I want and in perfect health.

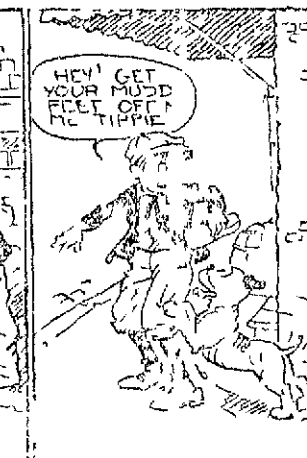

It is with pleasure that I recommend Dr. Orin's Stomach Remedy. Money back if Dr. Orin's Stomach Remedy does not let you know it will and remember that this is a miracle remedy. It is the prescription of a practicing physician who used it with great success in exactly such cases as yours during a period of 50 years. All good druggists can supply you.

CUMBERLAND, Oct. 25.—Frank Angel, 49 years old of Cumberland was brought to the Allegheny Hospital suffering from a broken back. He was injured in a mine accident.

GASOLINE'S EVAPORATION POINT

The distillation test alone reveals the true value of gasoline.

The presence of elements which take a temperature of over 400 degrees to volatilize causes starting trouble, carbon, knocking and oil dilution. The best gasoline evaporates entirely at 400°.

You cannot make your own distillation test but you can insist on Waverly because by government test, it has a lower distillation point and therefore gives more miles per gallon.
